It is all true and you will walk in it

And you wanted it and you said yes. But you did not know how to walk in it and therefore you lost it – more than once. And many got discouraged, because your desire is sincere. But you did not know how to walk it. But now, says the spirit of grace, you are seeing it and your heart is being filled with hope. Yes, I provided for you to walk this way. It is all true and you will walk in it. I provided for it. It is all true and I did it for you. I did not say anything to you, to stir up false hope. I am talking truth and only truth. There is no false hope in me. The hope is real, the lie is wrong. And you will learn to walk it. Glory be to God.
