

11. September 2016

The house of God

And the house of God will be a house again, where the captives will be set free and the truth will be heard. The truth will be uncovered. The house of God is going to step behind the veil, behind the veil of the flesh, the veil of tradition, the veil of mediocrity.

And truth will be discovered and truth will be understood. And many will say: "I have looked at this for a long time and I knew there was more, but now I see it. Now I see it, because now I am free."

And the church will be a house of deliverance. There will be those that come in demonically depressed and there will be those that come with perverted minds and bondage and they will be set free. And yes they will be set free even in minutes, in a moment, because the glory is returning.

The glory is returning to the house. The holiness is returning to the house. Holiness unto the Lord and the people will say: "I am dedicated, I am holy unto the Lord, I am separated unto the Lord, I am separated from worldly lust, from worldly thinking. And the glory, the glory will be seen, will be seen by many, yes by many.

And again you will stop to desire to have lived in another generation where other men and women of God were used, but you will be glad that you live in this hour, that you live in this hour, because what your eyes will see will be better than in the books you read. It will be better, it will be stronger and we will run with this glory. This time we will run unto the son until the return of the son. We will run until the return of the son. Yes we will run until the return of the son. We will run until the return of the son, the return of the son of God. What's being birthed this will run, this will fly, this will move forward until the return of the son. For the glories church, the glories church, the glories church – free from sin in the image of the son, in the power of the son, in the power of the love of God – it will set so many people free!