

The new radical

Radical is about to happen. A new definition of what it means to be dedicated to the Lord is coming to your life. You will not compare yourself with others anymore. But you will compare yourself with the call, which you have as individual. You will see into this picture as in a mirror and you will discover who you really are. You will go beyond what you have seen and what you have heard. Because there will be the revelation of the Holy Spirit on the inside of you of who you are supposed to be. Not a Christian like a product of mass production, but framed by the word of God – craved into the image of Christ.

The new radical is about to appear. And the new radical is about to be here. The new radical is about to be seen and it is about to be heard. It will be the dawn of a new day for those, who decided to follow His way, to follow His truth and His guide, to walk in the victory, to walk in the light, to see the pleasure of the Father again and enjoy the anointing more than ever. There is this flow and there is this river. There is this light to step in, so that you can see and receive all that is within. Within the calling of yours, within the destiny that has been designed for you. Rejoice and be happy. Rejoice and be strong in the Lord, because the new radical is about to appear.
