

The place of peace

- translated into English -

And you are hearing again and again about this peace. You are hearing again and again about that peace that passes all understanding and that should fill your heart. And many have never been at this place of peace in their lives. And you ask yourself, if this place is real. You ask yourself how that would be. But be sure, that as you follow me and you desire to follow me, you will come into that peace. And it will be more than you ever thought it could be. And it will be more beneficial to you, than you ever thought.

You will consider this peace as such a treasure and worth, that you won't allow anybody to take that peace from you. So be happy and confident, because I will accomplish and bring to an end what I've started. And your peace will be great. And your peace will be great. Peace as a weapon. Peace as your weapon seems to be contrary to your mind. But peace as your weapon is not contrary to your inner man. Because the Prince of Peace has come to reign in your life. Halleluja.
