

My Power Will Manifest

Have I not said that I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh? Have I not said that I would work signs and wonders? Your nation is not lost! Your nation is not hopeless! You must continue to speak My word in order to tear down and plant! Some things need to be destroyed in order for the planting and growth to come forth for the precious harvests I have sent. Yes, you have planted, and yes you will see your harvest, but you must stand strong and stir up My fire within you!

The seeds of My word are not lost, but you must continue to nurture the seeds and focus on the task I've given you! Be strong, stand firm, and live in My joy for My joy is what carries you! I will send to you the provision you need if you will just delight in My word and My presence and you will not lack!

I am sending the rain of heaven into your assembly like you have not seen in times past - it will be to a much greater level says the Lord - yes manifestations and demonstrations of My spirit will be on higher levels in months to come. It's a preparation says the Lord! Do not allow yourself to doubt what I've said I will do because unbelief is an insult to My integrity - but great times of refreshing will come even now as you repent of all doubt and unbelief!

Yes, I will pour out My spirit in your midst and through you as you yield and as you obey. You will have a greater boldness to stand in these days says the Lord - a boldness you have not experienced before and it will result in My word being proclaimed in the face of your enemies - but fear not because I am delivering your enemies into your hands and I will cause even your enemies to bless you!

Is not My word like a hammer which breaks the rock into pieces and is not My Spirit still the mighty rushing wind? Yes, I will blow with My fire through this nation and it is a cleansing fire, I will judge the enemies of My church in this hour and I will raise you up as My people to shine in the darkness!
