

What You Have to Say

What You have to say, is the light that shines in the dark place. What You have to say, is our escape. It is our hope. What You have to say, is the only true and living way, and therefore we will stay. Yes, we will stay! We will stay on this way, for now and forever. We will stay, because we want to hear His voice. We want to hear what He has to say. In the dark place, in the morning and in the night. We are going to see His glory. We will see His light. And many will come and many will see the goodness of the Lord and the true liberty, that flows from His cross, from His resurrection life. It flows through everyone who receives. It is the true light.

~

His Desire

For it is Your desire, to move among Your people. For it is Your desire, to fill everyone with fresh fire. So that you can run, and that you can burn, and that it burns everything away, that is not holy before Him. So it's His desire, to move among you. Those, that seek Him, and those that call unto Him. Because the Lord God is mighty. Oh, your God is mighty. Oh, your God is mighty. So let's come with joy, let's come with peace. Let's come with confidence and let us receive the more of heaven into the earth. The more of God into your walk. Welcome the presence of God!

~

Give Me What You Got

And I will truly lift you up. I will truly lift you up. Just give Me, what you got, and I will truly lift you up. Give Me your trust and give Me your love and I will lift you up. And My help is stronger and My arm is longer. It will lead you to places, where no one else can go. It can reach into places, and there My river will flow, the flow of the river of life. Life unto thee, through power by Me. And that is what you will see. You will see the goodness of the Lord in the lands of the living. So give Him what you've got and He will get you through.